SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES

Established in May 2005, the School of Education and Arts now known as School of Social Sciences and Humanities (SSS&H), was the successor to the Faculty of Educational Management and Technology (FEMT) that was set up earlier in 1999. SSS&H offers doctoral, graduate and undergraduate degree programs that aim at preparing social scientists, professionals and educators for the uplift of society. The school actively collaborates with governmental and non-governmental organizations to meet national targets of research and development. The School of Social Sciences and Humanities is committed to produce individuals who are capable of applying new knowledge to solve the social problems.

SSS&H anticipates an important role in developing quality human resources capable of generating new knowledge and educating people. SCHOOL OF GOVERNANCE AND SOCIETY

Pakistan in its existence spanning over six decades has experienced both civil and military governments. Claims by successive governments to effect improvement in the socio-economic plight of the common man have remained largely unfounded and vain. At the same time, the writ of the government has thinned out in an increasing number of regions. For those who are entrusted with the task to govern the country, the art and science of government appears to be secondary to the endeavor for self-perpetuation. Political inadequacies apart, failing to harness the critical mass of knowledge has remained perhaps the most vital missing link in responding to the needs and aspirations of the people.

The core program of the School of Governance and Society (SGS) is envisaged to be Government Studies. With an interdisciplinary approach, the teaching and research at the SGS aims to build on multiple knowledge sources, informing varied administrative structures, decision-making hierarchies, policy making function of the government as well as the civil society, in a dynamic national setting. The underlying aim of studying governance and society is to enable prospective learners to systematically understand and examine the governmental and social institutions, identify areas of focus, assess prospects for reform and effect change.

INSTITUTE OF ISLAMIC BANKING

Over the last few decades, Islamic Banking has made significant advances on the global scene of market share which is likely to rise to $4 trillion over the next 3-4 years. In Pakistan too, Islamic Banking is making inroads into conventional banking as more Islamic banks become operational. Recognizing the need for human resource development in the expanding field of Islamic Banking, the University of Management and Technology has taken the lead in establishing the Institute of Islamic Banking (IIB) at its main campus at Lahore. Under the patronage of Dr Hasan Sohaib Murad, Rector UMT, it is a pioneering initiative as the Institute embarks on an ambitious multidimensional program.

The IIB is simultaneously engaged at three major fronts. Its activities and programs are geared towards becoming a leading source of education, research and information in Islamic Banking. At the same time, IIB aims to become a self-sustaining arm of the University by generating substantial revenues through academic programs, consultancy and products sales. In the area of academic programs and research, IIB is offering postgraduate and graduate degrees in Islamic Banking and Finance. Moreover, with the participation of several reputed scholars from the Muslim world and elsewhere, IIB has launched a refereed semi-annual journal called 'Islamic Banking and Finance Review.' A new annually published journal titled 'Issues of Fiqh in Islamic Banking and Finance' will be launched soon from this year as well.
